

DENSE SAMPLE DOCUMENT FOR TESTING A LEASE SUMMARISATION SYSTEM. THIS IS NOT LEGAL ADVICE.

THIS AGREEMENT is made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski in relation to Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG. It records a private residential tenancy beginning on 10 July 2026 and ending on 9 July 2029, at a monthly rent of GBP 2,425 payable on the fifth business day of each month, with a security deposit of GBP 2,798 and a notice period to vacate of not less than four calendar months' written notice.

PAGE 1 OF 58 RECITALS, CONSTRUCTION, AND OPERATIVE DEMISE

1.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

1.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

1.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

1.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

1.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

1.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

1.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

1.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

1.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

1.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

2.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

2.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

2.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

2.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

2.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

2.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

2.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

2.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

2.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

2.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

3.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

3.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

3.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

3.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

3.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

3.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

3.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

3.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

3.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

3.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

4.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

4.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

4.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

4.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

4.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

4.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

4.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

4.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

4.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

4.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

5.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

5.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

5.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

5.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

5.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

5.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

5.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

5.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

5.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

5.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

6.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

6.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

6.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

6.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

6.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

6.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

6.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

6.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

6.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

6.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

7.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

7.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

7.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

7.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

7.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

7.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

7.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

7.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

7.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

7.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

8.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

8.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

8.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

8.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

8.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

8.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

8.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

8.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

8.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

8.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

9.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

9.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

9.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

9.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

9.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

9.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

9.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

9.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

9.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

9.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

10.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

10.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

10.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

10.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

10.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

10.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

10.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

10.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

10.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

10.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

11.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

11.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

11.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

11.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

11.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

11.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

11.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

11.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

11.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

11.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

12.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

12.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

12.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

12.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

12.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

12.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

12.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

12.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

12.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

12.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

13.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

13.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

13.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

13.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

13.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

13.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

13.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

13.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

13.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

13.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

14.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

14.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

14.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

14.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

14.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

14.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

14.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

14.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

14.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

14.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

15.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

15.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

15.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

15.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

15.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

15.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

15.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

15.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

15.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

15.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

16.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

16.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

16.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

16.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

16.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

16.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

16.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

16.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

16.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

16.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

17.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

17.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

17.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

17.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

17.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

17.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

17.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

17.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

17.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

17.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

18.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

18.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

18.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

18.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

18.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

18.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

18.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

18.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

18.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

18.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

19.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

19.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

19.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

19.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

19.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

19.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

19.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

19.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

19.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

19.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

20.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

20.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

20.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

20.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

20.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

20.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

20.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

20.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

20.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

20.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

21.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

21.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

21.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

21.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

21.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

21.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

21.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

21.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

21.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

21.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

22.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

22.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

22.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

22.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

22.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

22.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

22.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

22.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

22.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

22.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

23.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

23.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

23.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

23.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

23.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

23.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

23.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

23.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

23.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

23.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

24.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

24.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

24.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

24.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

24.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

24.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

24.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

24.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

24.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

24.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

25.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

25.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

25.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

25.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

25.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

25.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

25.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

25.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

25.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

25.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

26.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

26.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

26.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

26.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

26.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

26.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

26.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

26.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

26.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

26.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

27.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

27.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

27.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

27.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

27.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

27.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

27.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

27.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

27.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

27.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

28.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

28.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

28.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

28.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

28.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

28.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

28.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

28.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

28.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

28.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

29.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

29.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

29.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

29.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

29.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

29.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

29.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

29.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

29.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

29.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

30.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

30.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

30.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

30.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

30.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

30.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

30.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

30.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

30.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

30.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

31.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

31.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

31.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

31.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

31.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

31.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

31.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

31.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

31.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

31.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

32.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

32.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

32.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

32.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

32.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

32.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

32.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

32.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

32.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

32.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

33.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

33.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

33.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

33.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

33.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

33.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

33.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

33.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

33.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

33.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

34.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

34.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

34.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

34.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

34.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

34.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

34.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

34.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

34.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

34.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

35.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

35.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

35.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

35.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

35.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

35.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

35.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

35.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

35.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

35.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

36.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

36.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

36.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

36.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

36.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

36.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

36.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

36.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

36.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

36.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

37.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

37.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

37.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

37.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

37.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

37.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

37.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

37.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

37.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

37.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

38.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

38.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

38.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

38.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

38.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

38.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

38.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

38.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

38.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

38.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

39.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

39.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

39.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

39.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

39.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

39.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

39.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

39.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

39.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

39.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

40.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

40.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

40.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

40.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

40.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

40.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

40.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

40.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

40.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

40.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

41.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

41.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

41.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

41.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

41.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

41.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

41.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

41.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

41.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

41.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

42.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

42.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

42.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

42.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

42.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

42.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

42.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

42.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

42.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

42.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

43.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

43.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

43.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

43.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

43.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

43.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

43.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

43.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

43.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

43.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

44.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

44.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

44.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

44.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

44.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

44.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

44.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

44.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

44.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

44.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

45.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

45.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

45.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

45.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

45.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

45.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

45.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

45.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

45.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

45.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

46.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

46.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

46.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

46.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

46.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

46.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

46.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

46.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

46.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

46.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

47.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

47.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

47.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

47.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

47.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

47.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

47.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

47.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

47.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

47.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

48.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

48.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

48.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

48.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

48.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

48.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

48.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

48.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

48.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

48.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

49.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

49.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

49.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

49.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

49.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

49.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

49.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

49.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

49.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

49.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

50.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

50.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

50.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

50.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

50.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

50.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

50.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

50.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

50.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

50.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

51.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

51.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

51.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

51.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

51.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

51.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

51.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

51.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

51.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

51.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

52.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

52.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

52.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

52.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

52.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

52.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

52.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

52.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

52.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

52.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

53.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, subject to the contrary being required by statute, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

53.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

53.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

53.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

53.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

53.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

53.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

53.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

53.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

53.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

54.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, and in each case acting reasonably where consent is required, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

54.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

54.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

54.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

54.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

54.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

54.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

54.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight; and further that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

54.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

54.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

55.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, provided always that, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

55.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

55.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

55.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

55.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

55.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

55.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

55.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must use the resident portal to book goods-lift slots for bulky deliveries; and further that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

55.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

55.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

56.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

56.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

56.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

56.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

56.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

56.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

56.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

56.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must participate in annual cladding and balcony safety access appointments; and further that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

56.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

56.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

57.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, for the avoidance of doubt, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

57.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

57.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

57.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

57.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

57.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

57.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

57.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must not tamper with the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system; and further that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

57.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned, and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim

documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

57.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

58.1 This clause shall be construed as part of the tenancy agreement made between Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc as landlord and Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski as tenant in respect of Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG, and the demise hereby granted is for the fixed term commencing on 10 July 2026 and expiring on 9 July 2029, save where expressly stated otherwise, no estate, interest, licence, easement, right, or indulgence shall be deemed to arise other than as expressly conferred by this Agreement.

58.2 The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to pay the rent of GBP 2,425 monthly in advance on the fifth business day of each month without deduction, set-off, counterclaim, abatement, or suspension except where such restriction is prohibited by law, and further acknowledges that the deposit of GBP 2,798 is held as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant's covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements contained herein.

58.3 The Tenant shall not, and shall procure that all occupiers, invitees, contractors, licensees, and visitors shall not, use the Premises otherwise than as a private residential dwelling; cause nuisance, annoyance, obstruction, damage, hazard, or interference; or do any act by reason whereof any policy of insurance may be vitiated, rated, avoided, or rendered subject to additional premium.

58.4 The Tenant's ordinary obligations include keeping the Premises clean, heated, ventilated, secured, and reasonably protected from foreseeable deterioration; promptly notifying the Landlord of defect, disrepair, infestation, leak, failure of services, or suspected hazard; and taking immediate reasonable steps to mitigate loss pending attendance by the Landlord, managing agent, contractor, utility provider, or emergency authority.

58.5 The Landlord covenants to keep in repair the structure, exterior, installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating, and water heating so far as required by applicable residential landlord obligations, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure repairs after notice, subject to access, parts availability, contractor attendance, superior landlord requirements, insurance conditions, and force majeure events.

58.6 Save in emergency, suspected abandonment, urgent safety works, water escape, fire risk, or circumstances where immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent loss or injury, the Landlord shall give not less than twenty four hours' written notice before entering the Premises for inspection, repair, valuation, viewing, statutory compliance, testing, or works required by this Agreement or by any competent authority.

58.7 The following practical restrictions are material terms: no pet, animal, bird, reptile, or other creature may be kept without express written licence; overnight visitors may not remain for more than fourteen aggregate nights in any rolling ninety day period; and quiet enjoyment restrictions prohibit parties, amplified music, and balcony gatherings after 10:00 pm. Any permission granted in respect of pets, guests, noise, storage, parking, deliveries, or alterations shall be personal, revocable where breached, non-transferable, and shall not constitute a variation unless confirmed in writing as such.

58.8 The parties agree that the non-standard provisions applicable to this Premises include that the Tenant must maintain an emergency grab-bag because the building is within a managed dock flood zone; and further that the Tenant must not store lithium e-bike batteries inside the apartment overnight. Such provisions are not boilerplate terms and are included having regard to the age, location, construction, management regime, amenities, insurance arrangements, or building safety requirements of the Premises.

58.9 The Tenant shall give not less than four calendar months' written notice if the Tenant intends to vacate at or after the contractual expiry, and shall yield up the Premises with vacant possession, cleaned, cleared of personal items, with keys and access devices returned,

and with fair wear and tear excepted. Failure to comply may entitle the Landlord to claim documented loss, cleaning charges, replacement key charges, or other recoverable sums lawfully due.

58.10 No failure, delay, leniency, acceptance of rent, inspection, correspondence, or partial enforcement by the Landlord shall amount to a waiver of any breach unless expressly confirmed in writing. Any invalidity, unenforceability, or statutory modification affecting one provision shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall continue so far as lawful and capable of taking effect according to their tenor.

Plain-English summary for testing only: Eleanor Singh and Tomasz Kowalski rents Apartment 2304, Northgate Harbour Tower, 11 Dockmaster Lane, Liverpool L3 1HG from Northgate Harbour Residential REIT plc from 10 July 2026 until 9 July 2029. Rent is GBP 2,425 due on the fifth business day of each month. The deposit is GBP 2,798. The tenant must give not less than four calendar months' written notice to vacate, comply with detailed restrictions on guests, pets, noise, maintenance, access, and site-specific clauses, and return the premises clean and vacant at the end of the term. The landlord must maintain key systems, handle repairs, and give required access notice except in emergencies.